

I signed up for the Do Not Call list within days of its creation. It is one thing to receive a call from a telemarketer who demonstrates professionalism through his or her use of manners as well as listening skills. It is another, however, to receive phone calls in which I am harrassed by telemarketers with no regards for my feelings or privacy.

I DO NOT want to be contacted by telemarketers!